Inviting in God's Name
Proclaiming the Gospel
Living in Fellowship
Caring for Others

FROM THE PASTOR

WE CONFESS God created the universe for us. Earth, within the vast universe – a place presently for us to live.

WE BELIEVE in the Old Testament prophecy of God's eventual visitation. His Coming would reveal how best to live our life upon this place.

During Advent we prepare for this Coming. Christmas is our celebration of Messiah Come. Epiphany informs: his coming was through Israel for the world; for us. Lent is about God in Christ giving his life. Easter: God in Christ giving us life.

And Pentecost – we are become able to give our life, daily, in his name.

WE CLAIM as Christians, finally, this God of creation and revelation and of our worship, is God with us today who enables us.

* * * * *

It is this faith of God as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit and with which we engage daily life, that is generated and maintained and proclaimed through our church lives together.

The activities of church council, teams, committees, organizations, and ministries evidence the work among us of God's Spirit that grows faith and enables faithful lives. Our worship together Midweek and Weekend becomes our celebration – the people's song to God – preceding our re-entry into the world as God's People.

At our birth the universe is readied, already by God, for us. At our baptism we are entered into the life of God's church and begin the journey that prepares us for the world today and the whole realm of God beyond.

CHAPTER THIRTEEN / Page Six As you know, my journey and Gina's together with IPLC ends Sunday, June 26. We plan to reside just outside Sturgeon Bay, Wisconsin, and in Gaithersburg Maryland, just outside Washington, D.C. One of the many things I look forward to doing is reflecting back now and then on the privilege that has been mine to have been a parish pastor. Part of that has been church life, i.e., walking in ministry together, with you. We will ever remember, and invite you to remember with us, that in being disciples of Jesus Christ, we shall nonetheless and always walk together as Christians in this world and beyond.

“ . . . the one through whom God created the universe . . . ”

Hebrews 1:2

Sunday Schools News

Sunday, May 22, 2005 was the last day of Sunday School classes until the Fall. It was celebrated with an overview and awards ceremony during the 10:30 worship service.

Dennis Sherlock, a third grader, described a typical morning in Sunday School and then spoke of the Tsunami Relief service project the students were involved in this Spring. Students decided to sell plant bulbs to make money and add to that their Sunday offering. All in all, a check for $878 was sent to the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America Tsunami Relief from our students.

Our next speaker was Kylie Nieves, an eighth grader who told about the West Walker garage sale that was held on May 14th. The students collected their old toys and books and sold them along with taffy apples at a stand set up outside of the gym. They collected $105 that was given to the Capital Drive for IPLC.

Our third student speaker was, Michael Monroe, who told of our project that helped the soldiers in Iraq. One of the couples, Robert and Dawn Boers, in our church notified the Sunday School that their son, Brian was in Iraq and in need of a list of things. The items needed were both supplies the soldiers need when they go out on patrol, as well as, toys and goodies they need to take with them when searching homes of citizens. The children are scared and they relax a little if the soldiers have small gifts for them. A plea for donations was placed the Sunday School newsletter and the church bulletin and the response was overwhelming. Michael also told of his older brother, Nicholas, who collected items from his school and brought them for us to add to our large collection of goods. On May 8, the 5, 6, 7, and 8th grade classes along with their teachers, Sue Geisler and Sandra Stumme, under the direction of the Boers and Brian's wife, Allison, packed up 21 boxes of supplies to send to Brian and his fellow soldiers. It filled the Boers van and cost $233 to ship. That money was also donated by the many generous people who responded to our plea!

The morning festivities continued with the students singing a medley of songs, awards were handed out to the students for their attendance, and special recognition goes to MICHAEL MONROE and CAITLIN LIUBIN for Perfect Attendance! Finally, each student received a carnation to give to their parents, or relative or whoever it is who brings them to Sunday School and thereby honors the vow they made at baptism, to Teach the child about God!

Thank You to the teachers, Sandra Stumme, Sue Geisler, Dawn Benson, Deann Sherlock, Rebecca Haneberg, Nancy Curtis, Cam Steffen, Darcie Wadycki, Ray Helgeson, and to others who help in Sunday School, Nancy Hall, Marie Grunst, Holly Van Essen, Lee Stein and Sara Anderson. We have a great Sunday School because of your commitment to our children.

Sincerely, Lynette Schroeter

Pastor Suter Retires Reception scheduled for June 26

New Banner Book

The Altar Guild wishes to express deep appreciation to Carl Nelson for his dedication and long hours of photographing, organizing and researching the church banners, and for compiling a new reference book containing this information. Thank you, Car, for a job well done.

HISTORICALLY SPEAKING

Like every congregation, Irving Park Lutheran Church members are used to adjusting to changes in the ministry. It's a safe bet to say no future pastor will be able to match the 61-year record of Dr. Joshua Oden (IPLC pastor from July 1, 1908, until 1955, and pastor emeritus until his death on Sept. 22, 1969).

Let's take a closer look at life at IPLC in 1955, the first year under Dr. Gerald K. Johnson, who was installed on Sunday, Jan. 23, 1955. And, more specifically, let's focus on June, 1955, because there was plenty going on 50 years ago at the corner of Belle Plaine and Harding.

Eighteen members of the Confirmation Class, including Nancy Ann Moe (also known as current choir member Nancy Johnson), were confirmed on June 5. That day also commemorated the 50th anniversary of the Confirmand Reunion Society of IPLC, a group that met on every Confirmation Day to remember their Confirmation vows and get reacquainted with their old friends.

Pastor and Donna Johnson took a trip to Grand Forks, N.D., to share in the dedication festivities for Augustana Lutheran Church, where Pastor Johnson was first called. Rev. M.W. Gustafson filled in for Pastor Johnson on June 12.

The Church Council decided to discontinue the 11:15 a.m. Sunday service from June 12 until Labor Day. There still was a 10 a.m. service and a 9 a.m. Swedish service, which continued until the end of June.

The annual Father and Son Dinner was held June 16 in the Educational Building.

The annual Congregational Outing, an outdoor worship service and picnic, was held on Father's Day, Sunday, June 19, at Dam No. 4 at Devon and River Road. Some of the prizes included teepee tents, cameras, swimming masks, jewelry sets and ice chests.

Also on June 19, Pastor Oden turned 75. In addition to his role as pastor emeritus, Pastor Oden became the executive director and counselor of the Swedish Old People's Home in Evanston.

The IPLC softball team played its games at Winnemac Park.

The Swedish Choral Club, directed by former IPLC choir director Harry T. Carlson, performed June 25-26 at the Grand Park Band Shell.

Confirmation Class member Jessica Greenslade was one of two students selected to represent Marie Murphy Junior High School of Wilmette at Tech 2005, a state-sponsored event focusing on technology in Illinois classrooms held May 19 at the Capitol Rotunda in Springfield. Jessica was chosen for her work with digital imaging. Among other dignitaries, Jessica also got to share some of her knowledge with Illinois Lt. Gov. Patrick Quinn.

"There's a place for us" concert held on Sunday April 24, 2005 was a fun filled event attended by family, friends and colleges at Irving Park Lutheran Church. What a wonderful way to spring into the year destined to be filled with the glorious sounds of music!

The concert featured vocals from Country pop artist Anna Fermin, the smooth, jazz vocals of Frieda Lee, the contemporary gospel artistry of Dwan K. Buetow and introduced pop vocals by Ms. Dana M. Buetow. Together we hoped to touch the hearts and lives of our audience in ways that would last a life time.

We were joined on stage by Guitarist Dale Tippett, Jr., Keyboard player Alton Smith, Drummer Tim Clark and classical/musical theater vocalist and Pianist Mr. Carl Chadek.

The concert was followed by a refreshments in Victory Hall provided by Eleanor Barrett, Eleanor Kepp, Alison Freels and Holly Lundquist.

We are grateful and blessed for everyone that took time out of their busy lives to support us in concert, including the office staff here at Irving Park Lutheran Church who was able to provide the beautiful bulletins used for the event.

We look forward to providing more concerts in the near future.

May peace and the sweet sounds of music be yours forever,

Ms. Dwan K. Buetow
